

Advertising Agency looking for programmer

Our new but rapidly growing Advertising Agency is looking for a programmer (predominantly php + MySQL) to assist with web projects.

We require someone initially on a per project basis, however and dependant on their suitability and work ethics, we may very well offer a casual position, with the view to a full time position.

Please respond directly to ask@gmad.com.au providing a CV and a cover letter stating your skills set.